Trails

Brooke Pioneer Trail

This nearly 7-mile trail is wild and photogenic. Rabbits, racoons, deer and fox can be found all along the trail. Railroad bridges at Buffalo Creek, Harrison Run, Short Creek and Cross Creek were constructed by the Panhandle Railroad Company and went into service on February 24, 1878. Many clear views of the river and spectacular sunsets await!

www.brookepioneertrail.org

Panhandle Trail

The Panhandle Trail is West Virginia's first interstate trail, connecting Weirton, WV to Carnegie, PA near Pittsburgh. It stretches for 29 miles and is one of West Virginia's newest rail-trail, celebrating its grand opening in 2000. West Virginia's part of the trail is about 4 miles with one trail access point in Weirton on Harmon Creek Road.

www.panhandletrail.org

Wellsburg Yankee Trail

The Wellsburg Yankee Trail is a short, paved rail-trail that spans the entire length of Wellsburg, a small city on the Ohio River in West Virginia's Northern Panhandle. The community trail runs through the heart of town and at its southern end melds seamlessly into the nearly 7-mile Brooke Pioneer Trail and eventually links with the Wheeling Heritage Trails.
